

The Financial Aid Office at Suffolk County Community College recognizes that situations occur which may impede a student's or family's ability to meet educational expenses. If you, your spouse, or your parents' financial situation has changed signifi

The 2023-2024 FAFSA application used income information from 2021. You are completing this request because the 2021 income situation does not accurately reflect your current and/or projected income for the 2023-2024

