

SUFFOLK COUNTY COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Policy Statement

Damage to Material Property

Background

Occasionally the question arises as to the College's responsibility in cases where an individual, employee or student damages material property of the College.

The College's policy is to hold individuals responsible for damage to material property of the College, regardless of whether the damage was intentional or accidental.

Policy on Damages to Material Property

Individuals who damage material property of the College are responsible for the cost of repair or replacement of the property. This policy applies to all individuals, including students, employees and contractors.

Revised November 1, 1995