

FACULTY RECOMMENDATIONS

The adoption of the Resolution and carried unanimously:

WHEREAS, the Board of Directors requiring students to purchase books or other materials written or developed by the course and

WHEREAS, existing college policies of texts and other course materials refer to this problem, and

WHEREAS, this board is in the interest of the college to engage in the development of instructional materials for encouraged and the board of the college to

RESOLVED, That the Board of faculty members have written texts or other instructional materials used in their courses, these materials be reviewed for appropriateness by a committee composed of at least three qualified faculty members appointed by the Department Head. If those materials have been developed by a faculty member appointed by the Division Chairman, the Department Head makes the course materials to be required to be reviewed.

Sec Robert F. ...
Peer ... five