

STUDENT COMPLAINT RESOLUTION POLICY

SUMMARY

Suffolk County Community College (“College”) is committed to providing quality education and support services for our students. Accordingly, the College has established a student complaint process to allow students to identify problems which need to be evaluated, referred, and addressed. Additionally, tracking student complaints will allow the College to monitor the quality of services provided in accordance with accreditation standards set forth in 34 CFR 602.16(a)(1)(ix).

II. Complaints Not Covered by This Policy
