- When the accused is an employee, a reporting individual may also report the incident to the Title IX Coordinator (contact information listed above) to Human Resources. Reporting individuals may request that one of the above referenced confidential or private employees assist in reporting the incident. Disciplinary proceedings will be conducted in accordance with applicable collective bargaining agreements. When the accused is an employee of an affiliated entity or vendor of the college, college officials will, at the request of the reporting individual, assist in reporting to the appropriate office of the vendor or affiliated entity and, if the response of the vendor or affiliated entity is not sufficient, assist in obtaining a persona non grata letter, subject to legal requirements and college policy.

- You may withdraw your complaint or involvement from the College process at any time.
- Every college shall ensure that, at a minimum, at the first instance of disclosure by a reporting individual to a college representative, the following information shall be presented to the reporting individual: "You have the right to make a report to Campus Security, local law enforcement, and/or State Police or choose not to report; to report the incident to your institution; to be protected by the institution from retaliation for reporting an incident; and to receive assistance and resources from your institution."

II - Resources:

- x Within 96 hours of an assault, you can get a Sexual Assault Forensic Examination (commonly referred to as a rape kit) at a hospital. The Suffolk County Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner (SANE) Program has centers located at Reconic Bay Medical Center, Stony Brook Medicine, and Good Samaritan University Hospital. You do not have to pay for a SA Exam. If you do not have insurance or if you are afraid to use your insurance, New York State Crime Victims Board will pay for your exam. While there should be no charge for a rape kit, there may be a charge for medical or counseling services off campus and, in some cases insurance may be billed for services. You are encouraged to let hospital personnel know if you do not want your insurance policyholder to be notified about your access to these services. The New York State Office of Victim Services is able to assist in compensating victims/survivors for health care and counseling services, including emergency funds. More information may be found here ovs.ny.gov or by calling 1-800-247-8035. Options are explained here: <https://ovs.ny.gov/help/prime-victims>.
- x To best preserve evidence, victims/survivors should avoid showering, washing, changing clothes, combing hair, drinking, eating or doing anything to alter physical appearance until after a physical exam has been completed.

III- Protection and Accommodations:

- When the accused is a student, to have the college issue a "No Contact Order" with college policy and procedure, meaning that continuing to contact the protected individual is a violation of college policy subject to additional conduct charges.
